Monthly Emergency Population Release Report
November 2006

Emergency Population Releases during November totaled 95, occurring on 6 days during the month. This is a 45% decrease from October's total and a 59% decrease over one year ago when the total early releases for November were 227. Jail capacity in November 2005 was 1,576 beds; 114 beds less than our current capacity of 1,690 beds. Of these 95 early releases, 83 were males and 12 were females. High score for early releases during November reached 152; slightly up from September and October's highest score of 149 & 147 respectively. With the change in policy, the County is no longer releasing sentenced persons which are causing the overall score to increase. The average score of those released early was 52; virtually the same as October's average of 51 and 48% higher than November 2005's average score of 35. Listed below are the crime descriptions of those released in November, and the number of occurrences for each.
